Volunteers work:

Project Hope in Nablus

Period: May 1st 2013 till September 2nd 2013.

Project Hope is a non-profit grassroots organization that aims to provide equal education opportunities for Palestinian children and its activities covers many schools and cultural centers in Nablus. During the time of volunteering there I was working as a teacher, trainer, and translator at many schools, kindergartens, summer camps, and cultural centers in the Nablus area and in the refugee camps where we were providing language classes as a complement to the regular UNRWA school curriculum.

Infak Samsun Association

Period: 2015-2016

This association is active in Samsun city in Turkey and it has a goal to help the forced migrants who arrive to the city from different sources such as Syrian and Iraqi refugees by helping them finding homes, registering at immigration office and registering their kids at schools. I worked there as Arabic-Turkish translator.
