Workshops & Conferences

Organized a workshop: "Fundamentals of Realism in Advanced Rendering using Corona Renderer" (2 May 2026)

Dr. Ehab Abu Hannoud organized a specialized workshop for interior design students at An-Najah National University – Faculty of Fine Arts, titled "Fundamentals of Realism in Advanced Rendering using Corona Renderer," delivered by Mr. Yousef Naaman and Mr. Mohammad Baara. The workshop enhanced students' theoretical and practical competencies in realistic rendering, covering scene setup, lighting, cameras, materials, advanced settings, Light Mix, and post-production workflows, while supporting their ability to produce high-quality photorealistic interior visualizations aligned with labor market demands.

Organized a workshop: "Tools and Techniques for Video Production in Interior Design" (8 April 2026) (6 May 2026)

The workshop aimed to develop practical skills in producing interior design videos, including familiarization with specialized software and their requirements, integration with (3ds Max), mastering professional export techniques, understanding lighting fundamentals and types, camera setup, and applying motion and animation techniques, in addition to optimizing final rendering settings to produce high-quality outputs. The workshop was organized in response to requests from first-year preparatory students, and three outstanding senior students nearing graduation were invited to contribute to its delivery—Ameid Bakr, Taqwa Shdeed, and Lina Salahat—in order to enrich its content and share their practical experiences in this field. (April 2026)

Organized a workshop: From the Classroom to the Job Market (24 December 2025)

Organized and supervised a specialized workshop entitled “From the Classroom to the Job Market” for interior design students from the Department of Applied Arts at the College of Fine Arts. The workshop aimed to bridge the gap between academic learning and professional practice, and to highlight job market requirements and opportunities, particularly in the UAE market. It covered key topics including field training, job market opportunities, graduate readiness, pricing strategies and financial professionalism, as well as the fundamentals of project management and building a successful career path. The workshop was delivered by Eng. Abdulmutalib Ramadan.

Organized a workshop: Overview of Modern Game Development and 3D Design Practices, (November 2025)

Organized by Dr. Ehab Abuhannoud, a specialized workshop was held via Zoom hosting Jordanian designer Ehab Ghatasheh, a specialist in virtual and augmented reality (AR/VR) and 3D design, with more than 15 years of experience in developing digital environments and interactive experiences. During the workshop, he showcased a selection of his work in education, medical simulation, entertainment, and gaming using Unreal Engine and Maya, in addition to his collaborations with renowned studios such as Trixel Studio, GMR, and Rubicon.

Organized a workshop for interior design students with professional and academic experts to provide feedback and enhance their readiness (November 2025)

Organized an interactive session for interior design students with professional and academic experts, providing feedback on graduation projects and enhancing students’ creative skills and readiness for the professional environment.

Workshop: Harnessing Generative AI to Enhance Research Productivity (March 2025)

Participation in holding a workshop on the art of self-marketing and product selling (September 2024)

EON-XR Student Course (October 2022)

The Application of Augmented Reality and Virtual Reality in Interior Design.

Adapting the Icons of Palestinian Folklore to Serve the Applied Arts, Participant (January 2022)

The lecture, titled "Adapting the Icons of Palestinian Folklore to Serve the Applied Arts: Contemporary," took place on the evening of Wednesday, January 12, 2022, in Amman, Jordan. It was held at the direct invitation of the House of Culture and Arts, headed by Dr. Hana Al-Bawab, and in cooperation with the Qamat and Manarat Forum, led by its president, Hassan Majali.

A Cataloging in Publication Record (November 2021)

Introductory Seminars: Publishing in International Cataloging data.

Palestinian Culture Today: Challenges and Prospects (November 2021)

The impact of the Covid-19 pandemic has led to the closure of public spaces, restrictions on visual performances, the shutting down of cultural institutions, and a decline in financial support for such activities in Palestine. Additionally, there is a political crisis related to the setbacks of the Palestinian national project, diminishing Arab solidarity with Palestine during the Arab civil wars, and the repercussions of the Deal of the Century and the process of cultural normalization between Israel and some Arab countries. A glimmer of hope emerged during the Jerusalem uprising last May. The conference was sponsored by the Arab Fund for Arts and Culture (AFAC) and the Arab Fund for Economic and Social Development (AFESD), and organized online by Birzeit University.

Epoxy and Resin Applications in Furniture, Participant (March 2020)

The workshop was held at Atelier One Centre in Nablus.

Epoxy and Resin Applications in Furniture, Participant (September 2019)

The workshop was held at Atelier One Centre in Nablus.

International Creative Summer School, Team Leader (July-August 2019)

The workshops were held at the University for the Creative Arts in Epsom

Epoxy and Resin Applications in Furniture, Participant (December 2018)

The workshop was held at The Royal Crown Centre in Nablus.

- The basics of epoxy: mixing, coloring, creating natural stone patterns, and other techniques.
- How to pour epoxy over existing countertops and create new ones.
- Flooring process and preparation.
- Super Traxx outdoor products.

Gifted and Talented Students, However! Participant (December 2018)

This workshop aimed to discuss appropriate learning and development opportunities for gifted students in schools. It sought to mobilize and steer the interest and effort of parents, teachers, academics, and decision-makers, with a view to creating a conducive and enriching learning environment for all gifted students. The workshop focused on encouraging all participants to undertake further research on gifted education and to exchange ideas and best practices.

Originality: Plagiarism Detection, Workshop Leader (December 2018)

This workshop assisted school staff in better detecting possible plagiarism, aiming to prevent plagiarized content in student papers by using a system (Turnitin), which enables staff to compare students' work with a vast database of electronic sources.

The 6th Annual Symposium on Education and New Learning Methodology, Participant (August 2018)

Efficient Eco-systems for Industry-Based Learning Models

Entrepreneurial University, Participant (August 2018)

An Approach to Renovate Palestinian Universities

Dealing with Huge 3ds Max Files, Rendering Settings, and Advanced Lighting, Workshop Coordinator: Rami Shreem (April 2017)

Focused on enhancing participants' skills in managing large 3ds Max files efficiently, optimizing rendering settings, and applying advanced lighting techniques to improve workflow, visual quality, and overall project performance.

Painting Techniques and Isolation Materials, Workshop Coordinator (December 2016)

Focused on developing participants' knowledge of painting techniques and isolation materials, including proper application methods, material selection, and best practices to ensure durability, quality finishes, and effective surface protection.

Roof Tiles and Exterior Wood Works: Techniques and Ideas, Workshop Coordinator (December 2016)

Focused on developing participants' understanding of roof tile applications and exterior woodwork techniques, including material selection, installation methods, and innovative design ideas, with practical insights to enhance aesthetic and functional outcomes in exterior design.

Focused on developing participants' skills in writing professional and competitive CVs through effective organization of academic and professional information, highlighting key achievements, and applying best practices in CV preparation, with practical exercises to enhance clarity and presentation.

Syllabuses Building, Participant (October 2016)

Held at the Centre for Excellence in Learning and Teaching at An-Najah National University, this workshop tutored instructors on building syllabuses that would complement both course requirements and writing scientific papers. It provided an opportunity for university instructors to learn about common course requirements and identify effective strategies for achieving course goals and learning outcomes. Attendees developed their syllabuses while exchanging ideas and resources with colleagues. Additionally, this workshop offered an opportunity for co-instructors to begin developing their co-teaching relationships and planning for their fall responsibilities.

3rd Creativity Workshop (Design Hub), Participant (September 2016)

This dynamic workshop, part of the Design Hub Palestine scheme, was implemented by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) in collaboration with An-Najah National University, the Nablus Creative Furniture Cluster, and the Nablus Chamber of Commerce & Industry. Participants produced three pieces of furniture for display in local and international exhibitions as part of the Made in Palestine Program. These furniture designs incorporated traditional Palestinian elements within a postmodern style.

Conference of Excellence in Learning & Teaching, Participant (July 2016)

At the request of the Center for Excellence in Learning and Teaching at An-Najah National University (CELT), I was tasked with designing and supervising the Student Projects Exhibition at the Faculty of Fine Arts Court. This exhibition took place on the sidelines of the fifth annual conference, entitled "Linking Higher Education Institutions Models with Working Environments."

Conference on New Trends in Higher Education, Participant (July 2016)

Two students from my faculty attended this conference, delivered in collaboration with the Centre for Excellence in Learning and Teaching (CELT). The students' projects reflected the possibilities of developing relationships between academics and Palestinian community institutions to link education with work environments. The focus was on student involvement in company internships and the role of those companies in developing the curriculum, especially at the Faculty of Fine Arts. Additionally, the projects highlighted the successes of project-based and community-based apprenticeship models in improving entrepreneurial skills and preparing learners for work.

Europe Day Exhibitor and Workshop Participant (May 2016)

Exhibited artwork (Palestinian furniture) within the ward "The Development of Cluster Groupings in the Cultural and Creative Industries in the Southern Mediterranean Program," as part of the celebration of Europe Day in Ramallah City. Organized by the Representation of the European Union in Palestine, the outdoor exhibition was opened by Palestinian Prime Minister Rami Al-Hamdallah and EU Representative Ralph Tarraf. It featured EU Member State and EU-Palestinian collaborative projects from across Palestine.

'Student Projects and Community Needs' Workshop Leader (March 2016)

Delivered a one-day workshop entitled "Linking Student Projects with Local Community Needs" at An-Najah National University (ANU). The workshop enabled students to directly engage with potential key players from the local community. It aimed to uncover specific problems and needs with a view to working together to find the best solutions and to provide an invaluable framework that can be transferred to real projects in the local environment.

2nd Creativity Workshop (Design Hub), Participant (February 2016)

Participated in the 2nd Creativity Workshop as part of Design Hub Palestine, implemented by the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO).

Project-Based Learning Training Workshop (January 2016)

Focusing on the design and implementation of project-based courses, the program included four modules covering project design, problem integration, teamwork and project quality monitoring, and assessment of the final product. The workshop was held by the Centre for Excellence in Learning and Teaching (CELT) at An-Najah National University.

'Microsoft (MS) Word to Write Academic Papers' Workshop Leader (October 2015)

Delivered a one-day workshop at An-Najah National University (ANU). The skills taught in this workshop empowered students to succeed at an advanced college level. They were taught how to conduct rigorous academic research and how to express their ideas clearly in an academic format.

'Microsoft Word in Advanced Research Projects' Workshop Leader (November 2014)

This one-day workshop held at An-Najah National University (ANU) was designed to install confidence in users so that they could take full advantage of all the features offered by Microsoft Word. The workshop enabled students to produce sophisticated, professional documents efficiently.

Fifth Conference on Palestinian Art and Folklore (October 2013)

"The Reality and Challenges"

'Developing the Interior Environment of Kindergarten Facilities in Palestine', Workshop Coordinator (December 2012)

A one-day workshop held at An-Najah National University (ANU) in collaboration with the Ministry of Higher Education in Palestine (MOHE). It aimed to discuss the first draft of licensing kindergarten building regulations in Palestine with selected groups of academics from ANU, MOHE, specialists in the early education field, and the local community. Full research was also submitted in this workshop for participants.

Exhibitions

Nablus 2026	Organized the "Palestinian Tales" Exhibition in collaboration between the Faculty of Fine Arts and the Department of Architecture at the Faculty of Engineering at An-Najah National University, showcasing the work of students enrolled in the Furniture Design course within the Interior Design program during the second semester of the 2025/2026 academic year. The exhibition featured 20 full-scale (1:1) furniture prototypes inspired by Palestinian folk heritage, reinterpreted through a contemporary design approach, accompanied by technical drawings and 3D models. This highlighted the integration of the design process from concept to execution and contributed to enhancing the quality of academic and creative outputs, as well as fostering interdisciplinary collaboration.
Nablus 2025	Student Exhibition Showcasing Furniture Design Course Projects for the Academic Year 2024/2025. A student exhibition was held during the academic year 2024/2025 to showcase the outcomes of the Furniture Design course, under the supervision of Dr. Ehab Abu-Hannoud. The exhibition was titled "Contemporary Palestinian Furniture", highlighting a creative vision that bridges heritage and modern design. The exhibition featured 75 innovative furniture designs, each inspired by an icon of Palestinian folk heritage, reflecting the students' ability to transform traditional cultural elements into functional and aesthetically contemporary pieces. In addition, the exhibition included 13 full-scale (1:1) models executed by the students themselves, demonstrating their hands-on skills in transforming design concepts into tangible, practical outcomes. This exhibition stands as a culmination of the students' efforts throughout the semester and affirms the importance of integrating Palestinian cultural identity into the realm of contemporary design.

Asira 2022	Design and implementation of a ceramic tile mural in Asira Al-Shamaliah (Asira Al-Shamaliah Panorama), a project with CARE International organization, Asira Al-Shamaliah Municipality, and Al-Nataqatin Association (NGO), 2022.
Asira 2021	Asira Al-Shamaliah Exhibition held at Asira Museum as part of the Asira Festival (Asira Al-Bider and Al-Zaitoon). The festival and exhibition were supported by the Ministry of Culture, the Municipality of Asira Al-Shamaliah, The Palestinian House of Friendship (PHF), and the General Women's Union in August 2021.
Nablus 2019	The exhibition "Furniture Between Heritage and Modernity" showcased furniture inspired by elements of Palestinian folklore heritage, manufactured using advanced techniques and modern materials. The exhibition was held at An-Najah National University in Nablus City in April 2019.
London 2019	Summer school exhibition at UCA Epsom (University for the Creative Arts).
Paris 2017	Submitted six post-modern furniture designs reflecting Palestinian culture and heritage to the MAISON & OBJET PARIS exhibition in 2017. These designs were presented as part of the International Home Style Exhibition within the Creative Mediterranean department. The works were submitted in cooperation with the United Nations Industrial Development Organization (UNIDO) and the Nablus Furniture Cluster (NFC).
Ramallah 2016	Exhibited artwork (Palestinian furniture) within the ward "The Development of Cluster Groupings in the Cultural and Creative Industries in the Southern Mediterranean Program," as part of the celebration of Europe Day in Ramallah City. Organized by the Representation of the European Union in Palestine, the outdoor exhibition was opened by Palestinian Prime Minister Rami Al-Hamdallah and EU Representative Ralph Tarraf. It featured EU Member State and EU-Palestinian collaborative projects from across Palestine.

Academic Activities

Launch of an initiative to share the artistic creations of Faculty of Arts students with public school students in the Nablus Governorate (November 2025).

The initiative aims to introduce school students to the nature of artistic work by showcasing samples of student projects in ceramics, painting, stained glass, carpentry, and graphic design. The displayed works included oil paintings, ceramic murals, and educational and awareness posters carrying motivational and educational messages. The initiative contributed to developing students' visual awareness and enhancing their artistic understanding. This step reflects the faculty's commitment to community service and strengthens the university's connection with local institutions.

Member of the Master's Program Committee in Interior Design at the Faculty of Fine Arts, An-Najah National University, (2024–2025)

Membership of the Preparatory Committee, (November 2021- March 2022)

Served as a member of the preparatory committee for the "Asira Btsalem Alek" initiative supporting cultural, touristic, and artistic activities in the municipality of Asira Al-Shamaleya in 2021.

Advancing Supervision for Artistic Research (January – March 2022)

Supervised the designing and implementation of a ceramic mural titled "Homat Al-Dar" for Mrs. Magada Sholi, presented as part of the Asira Btsalem Alek initiative in cooperation with CARE Organization, Asira Al-Shamaleya Municipality, and That Al-Netaqain Association.

External Project Consultant on Product Design (March - June 2021)
